Kunoichi Kai Budo Seminar

September 21st & 22nd at Whytecliff Park

We have three of the top female Bujinkan practitioners visiting for Kunoichi Project 2013:

Sheila Haddad - 15th dan - training in martial arts since the late 80's, she holds high ranks in several Japanese martial styles. In addition, she teaches Women's Self Defense systems to girls and women of all ages and backgrounds. Sheila is also very active in the international martial arts scene, as a practitioner, teacher, and board member of many martial arts and self-defense associations.

Gillian Booth - 15th dan - with over 35 years in martial arts, and a former Australian Judo Champion, Gillian is an inspirational and dynamic teacher. She also visits Hombu Dojo in Japan at least twice a year.

Cathy Lewis - 15th dan - over 26 years of martial arts training, 19 of which in Bujinkan, Cathy also is a regular at Hombu Dojo in Japan. Back home in California, she teaches Women's Self Defense as well as budo, and is a certified Hatha Yoga instructor.

Where - Whytecliff Park in beautiful Horseshoe Bay, lower section where we were for the Duncan Stewart seminar

What Time - 09:30 registration as usual

How Much - 2 days training $160, 1 day only $120

What to Bring - a bag lunch (there are lots of shops, take-out, and restaurants nearby in the village, your usual assortment of budo gear and equipment. These Kunoichi are multi-skilled and come from very different backgrounds and influences; you never know what they will want to work on . . .
